About Informit

Informit provides access to unique specialist content through its collection of over 100 databases. These cover a wide range of subjects, including health, engineering, business, education, law, humanities and social sciences. Informit’s products—Collections and Media—contain content sourced from publishers, associations and peak professional bodies as well as international authors.

From its head office in Melbourne, Australia, Informit works with library consortia, associations and agents to help users advance their research through access to peer-reviewed and specialist journals, monographs, reports, conference papers and bibliographic indexes, collated with a focus on regional perspectives and otherwise hard-to-find research.

Informit products provide access to authoritative research from Australia, New Zealand, Asia-Pacific and around the world.

In the Victorian case, interdisciplinary approaches used in implementing bushfire policies in urban planning practice - three skills sets essential for risk assessment - ability to gather and understand background information - fire and forest knowledge - ability to conduct design assessment and response processes - peer reviewed.

“...When I want to conduct a comprehensive search of law journals, Informit is my first port of call. A recent search for any articles on the Fair Work Act provided me with ample results from authoritative sources to take back to the client.”

Sally Manser, Law Institute of Victoria, Australia
